13 – 14 September 2024 | CESifo, Munich

CESifo is inviting its research network members to submit papers to the 2024 CESifo Area Conference on Economics of Education. Organized by Area Directors Eric A. Hanushek (Stanford University) and Ludger Woessmann (ifo Institute), the conference brings together network members to discuss their recent research and to encourage broader interactions, particularly on both sides of the Atlantic. Submitted papers may deal with any topic within the broad domain of Economics of Education. Accepted papers will appear in the CESifo Working Paper Series.

Please note that the same paper can only be submitted to one of the CESifo Area Conferences. Papers which are more related to the topic of other Area Conferences may be re-directed to the respective Area Director.

As part of the 25th anniversary of the CESifo Network, we are developing a strategic alliance with the Africa Fellows in Education Policy (AFEP). Their researchers will join the network meetings, which this year will include a panel on the economics of education in Africa.

DISTINGUISHED CESifo AFFILIATE AWARD

The Distinguished CESifo Affiliate Award, aimed at encouraging talented young scholars, will be awarded to the best paper presented by a young author at the conference. Accepted candidates will be invited to attend and present their paper. Candidates must be no more than five years after completing their PhD (same applies to any co-authors). The winning paper will appear in the CESifo Working Paper Series, and the prize winner will receive a €2,000 prize.

All CESifo Research Fellows are welcome to nominate candidates by submitting the nominee's paper to Eric Hanushek and Ludger Woessmann along with a CV and a brief note explaining the motivation for the nomination. The deadline for nominations is 2 June 2024.

We gratefully acknowledge support from the Collaborative Research Center Rationality and Competition (CRC TRR 190) and the Center for Research on Education Outcomes (CREDO) for their support of this annual conference.

CESifo is celebrating its silver jubilee this year.

Twenty-five years promoting economic research.

Twenty-five years growing with you.
